

CREATING RESPONSIVE & CARING COMMUNITIES IN EARLY CHILDHOOD PROGRAMS

OVERVIEW

How can educators develop meaningful connections with families from diverse racial, cultural, and socioeconomic backgrounds?

How can they build trusting relationships with parents that extend beyond assessment and evaluation?

This workshop series addresses the key questions facing early childhood programs in creating caring communities, through the use of storytelling strategies. Early childhood educators will learn vital skills to connect with parents and create a nurturing community for families.

FEB 10TH

SESSION ONE

BUILDING TRUSTING RELATIONSHIPS:
Utilizing storytelling as a powerful vehicle for connecting across race, culture, and socioeconomic differences.

MAR 10TH

SESSION TWO

STRATEGIES FOR BRINGING PARENTS AND TEACHERS TOGETHER:
Providing an opportunity to collaborate, plan, and utilize storytelling strategies to connect with parents and build community.

APR 7TH

SESSION THREE

CONTINUING SUPPORT:
Discuss successes and challenges that arise during implementation of storytelling strategies in early childhood communities.

DETAILS

COST: $75 MEMBERS $100 NON-MEMBERS
ALL THREE SESSIONS ARE INCLUDED IN PRICING
No Refunds No Exchanges

LOCATION: CONNECTIONS FOR CHILDREN
2701 Ocean Park Blvd Suite 253
Santa Monica, California 90405
Garage Parking Available

Registration & Light Breakfast 8:30am
Session 9am -12pm

Susan Bernheimer, Ph.D.

Presented By: SCAEYC-North Bay

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT
MONICA DELIA
(310) 452 3325 ext 230
monicad@cfc-ca.org

